

Data Protection Notice
on Eurofound exhibition:
The future of living and working in Europe

24 September 2024

Eurofound embraces the need to protect your personal data. We, therefore, undertake to process it, as data controller, with respect to the applicable law<sup>1</sup>.

If after reading this notice you still have questions on the processing of your data, please contact us at dataprotectionofficer@eurofound.europa.eu. We will reply to you within one month.

Why do we process your personal data?

The purpose of processing is to organise the Eurofound Exhibition: “The future of living and working in Europe”, which will take place on 15–17 October at the premises of the European Parliament.

In particular, processing takes place to register individuals to attend the Info Session (i.e., tailored info session exclusively for MEPs and EP staff to foster a deeper understanding of how Eurofound’s research, knowledge and analyses can help inform EU and national debates and policy actions), the Opening Reception (i.e., opening ceremony, keynote speeches, and networking), and/or the Panel Debate (i.e., gathering of Eurofound experts, MEPs and EU stakeholders to discuss issues linked to the twin transitions’ impact on employment, housing, and social cohesion), as a part of the exhibition organised by Eurofound<sup>2</sup>, as well as to take photos of the events.

Please note that none of these purposes involves the need to make a decision solely by automated means and without any human intervention.

have consented to appear in the photos, you will not be identified on any published photos.

Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Eurofound's staff members, namely the members of the Information and Communication Team, will have access to all your data. Photographers hired to take photos will have access to your image.

In case you do not hold an access card to the European Parliament, staff members of the European Parliament will have access to your name, email address, date of birth, nationality, ID document type, ID document number, document expiry date for the purposes of granting you access to the venue. For more information on how the European Parliament processes your personal data, please read the applicable data protection notice.

No other third parties will have access to your personal data, except if required by law.

How long do we keep your personal data?

The following retention periods apply to the processing of personal data by Eurofound:

- The web registration form is deleted after 1 year;
- Participant and visitor lists are held for 7 years;
- Photographs are kept for 4 years; and
- Other data submitted in relation to events and for which a particular retention period is not foreseen above are kept for 5 years.

After this time, your data will be securely destroyed, unless deemed of archival importance or in case is anonymised. In both situations, your data will be retained for longer.

How do we protect and safeguard your data?

We follow strict security procedures to ensure that your data is safely protected and is not, in any way, damaged, destroyed, or disclosed to a third party without your authorisation or without you being informed, as well as to prevent unauthorised access. The servers storing the information are kept in a secure environment with restricted physical access. Our IT systems use firewalls and other measures to restrict electronic access. All data in electronic format are stored on Eurofound's web services the operations of which abide by Eurofound's ICT Policies and our information systems security policy.

Do we transfer any of your personal data to third countries or international organisations (outside the EU/EEA)?

No.

What are your rights as a data subject and how can you exercise them?

Within the limits set by the EUDPR, you have the right to access, rectify, erase and/or port your personal data, to restrict or object to the processing of your personal data, and to withdraw your consent (if obtained). Just note that withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing while your consent was valid.

You may contact the Senior Communications Manager at events@eurofound.europa.eu with your request. Your request is free of charge. However, if it is manifestly unfounded or excessive, Eurofound may refuse to act on it.

You also have the right to raise a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor should you consider that this processing is in violation of the law. You will find more information here.
